

Returners Incentives

2020/21 Applications

Returning Student: For the purposes of booking 2020/21 residential accommodation at Broadgate Park, a returning student is a student who, at the time of making their online booking for accommodation, has commenced studies at the University of Nottingham, is currently enrolled on a course or is returning after a period of absence. This will be verified by the University of Nottingham.

£200 discount on all room types for either a full 44 or 51 weeks (subject to availability).

- A limited number of 500 Returning Students who book and accept a room will be eligible for the discount.
- Any verified Returning Students who book and accept a room by 2nd March 2020 will be eligible for the discount.
- Discount will only be available within Returner designated flats at the time of allocation.
- The £200 discount is non-transferable.
- In the event that the Student finds another student to replace them in accommodation and take on their obligations under the Residence Agreement, the original Student's entitlement to discounted Residence Fees shall cease.
- The discount will be applied as a credit value against the rental invoice as defined in the offer of the Student Residence Agreement rental schedule.
- Any student who does not pay the full amount of an instalment payment when it falls due will terminate the entitlement to discount.
- In the event that a Student's Residence Agreement is terminated early either by the Student, UPP or the University (in accordance with the Student Residence Agreement) the Student's entitlement to any element of discount shall cease at the date of termination.
